
The
BRIDE
AND THE
TREE
Who Has the Right to Decide?

THE BUILDING
Why Didn't God Just Make Eve From Dust?
Genesis 2:7, 18–23

THE

THE BRIDEGROOM
She Was Called to Walk With Him.
Ephesians 5:25–27

MAIN TEACHING POINTS IN THIS STUDY

1. God was establishing a relationship before He was establishing an assignment.
2. The Bride's identity comes from the Bridegroom—not from her activity.
3. The serpent didn't have to sit in the judge's chair. He only had to convince humanity that the chair belonged to them.
4. Freedom in Christ is not the right to redefine truth.
   It is liberation to live in the truth.
5. The Bride was never called to take His place.
   She was called to walk with Him.
